Nature of Power	Extent of Power	Authority	General condition	Remarks
1	2	3	4	5
SI No.23(a): Issue sanction / Administrative Approval against both Central Share and corresponding Counterpart. Funding (similar to State share) of a new or continuing Externally Aided Projects (EAPs) including purchase of equipment and machineries provided those are part of the scheme.	Full Power	Senior-most Secretary of the Department (powers not to be further delegated)	a) Subject to condition No.1 b) Observance of Section 7(2) of the AFRBM Act, 2005. c) The amount of counterpart funding to be released shall be proportionate to the actual Central share release as per the approved funding pattern of the particular EAP. d) Approval of the PIU Society and as per the loan conditions for seeking prior permission from the external aid agency. e) No-objection from P & D Department and or prior concurrence from the concerned Finance (Expenditure Control) Department are NOT required.

Further, the nature of power mentioned at Sl. No.23(I), 23(II) and 23(III) in the notification No.FEB.73/98/213 dated 24th August, 2016 and mentioned at Sl.No.30 (page 20) of the Delegation of Financial Powers, 1999 (as amended), Second Edition, 2016 would automatically be null and void as these powers subsumed into the Sl.No.23 as stated above in the table and thus they are superseded.

Thus, the administrative departments are not required to approach either P&D Department or Finance Department while issuing Financial Sanction or Administrative Approval for both Central Share and State Share of above schemes and the requirement of Departmental Finance Committee is also dispensed with so as to facilitate expeditious implementation of schemes.
